Bangalore 5th March 1908.

From

D. Devaraj Urs Esquire
Deputy Commissioner
Bangalore District

To

L. Anantasami Rao Esquire B.A.
Secretary to the Government of Mysore
Mouzrai Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Veerabhadrappa who was managing Sri Nageswara Swami temple at Yelahanka in the Bangalore Taluk, is reported to have died two years ago and his uncle Veerabhadrappa is looking after the said temple affairs at present.

1. Veerabhadrappa (the present manager on the deceased)
2. Settara Obanniappa.
3. Hutchappa and others Applicants.

2. The Bangalore Sub Division Officer in forwarding the Vernacular correspondence recommends the appointment of the marginally noted persons as Dharmadarsis of the temple. As the temple is a Muzrai Institution, I request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the appointment of the said persons as Dharmadarsis of the temple.

3. The vernacular file of papers ending with Bangalore Sub Division Officer's Yadi No. 819, dated 26th February 1908, is herewith.
